The Development will comply with state and federal fair housing and antidiscrimination laws; including, but not limited to, consideration of reasonable accommodations requested to complete the application process. The applicant cannot be financially dependent on the live-in attendant. The attendant may be a family member with the exception of a spouse. Any debt owed to an apartment community must be paid in full.

Credit – Unsatisfactory credit references including any open bankruptcies, or no credit history may result in the requirement of an additional deposit or denial. Unsatisfactory credit shall be determined through a screening analysis report from First Advantage with a score below 450. The qualifying criteria includes an applicant’s credit history, payment history, rent to income ratio, debt to income ratio, and rental history from the rental history database information available at the time the application is processed. The screening analysis report allows us to gather a comprehensive perspective of the applicant’s risk level.

Criminal Background - No applicant, resident or occupant may have been convicted of the following criminal activity: Fraud or Fraud Related Crimes, Sexual Offenses including Registered Sex Offenders, Crimes of violence and threats of violence including homicide crimes, Crimes involving the manufacture, sale and/or distributions of drugs, Currently engaged in illegal use of a drug or pattern of illegal use of a drug that may threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents; Abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol that may threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents; Theft Crimes involving force or violence, Kidnapping, Unlawful Restraint, Smuggling, and Trafficking of Persons, Arson, Burglary and Criminal Trespass, Public Indecency and Organized Crime Activity. This includes persons who have not yet satisfied the probationary period of a deferred adjudication.

Each person denied occupancy based on information obtained in the criminal background check, shall be allowed to appeal the denial and submit information that shows mitigating circumstances such as the facts and circumstances of the criminal conduct, the age of the applicant at the time of the crime, severity and recentness of the criminal conduct and rehabilitation efforts.

Animals – A maximum of 1 pet(s) per apartment is permitted. Dogs whose breed or dominant breed weight exceeds 20 pounds at maturity are not accepted. The following breeds or partial breeds are not permitted: rottweilers, pit bulls, akitas, dobermans, chows, German shepherds, and Australian shepherds. Exotic animals and reptiles are not accepted. Additional restrictions may apply.

Specific animal, breed, number, weight restrictions, pet rules, and pet deposits will not apply to households having a qualified service/assistance animal(s).

All animals must be photographed by management before approval.

Assistance Animal - Certain animals provide assistance or perform tasks for the benefit of a person with a disability. Such animals are often referred to as “service animals,” “assistance animals,” “support animals,” “therapy animals,” “companion animals,” or “emotional support animals”. The use of assistive animals is allowed as a reasonable accommodation.

Under both the Fair Housing Act and Section 504, in order for a requested accommodation to qualify as a reasonable accommodation, the requester must (1) have a disability, and (2) the accommodation must be necessary to afford a person with a disability an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling. To show that a requested accommodation may be necessary, there must be an identifiable relationship, or nexus, between the requested accommodation and the person’s disability. In the case of assistance/service animals, an individual with a disability must demonstrate a nexus between his or her disability and the function the service animal provides.

The Property will verify the existence of the disability, and the need for the accommodation—if either is not readily apparent. Persons who are seeking a reasonable accommodation for an emotional support animal may be required to provide documentation from a physician, psychiatrist, social worker, or other mental health professional that the animal provides support that alleviates at least one of the identified symptoms or effects of the existing disability.

In accordance with HUD Final Rule (73 F.R. 63834) and 24 CFR part 5, subpart C, a reasonable accommodation may be denied under the following circumstances: (1) pose a direct threat to the health or safety of others (2) result in substantial physical damage to the property of others unless the threat can be eliminated or significantly reduced by a reasonable accommodation (3) pose an undue financial and administrative burden; or (4) fundamentally alter the nature of the Property’s operations.

The Property may exclude an assistance animal when that animal’s behavior poses a direct threat and its owner takes no effective action to control the animal’s behavior so that the threat is mitigated or eliminated. The determination of whether an assistance animal poses a direct threat will be based on an individualized assessment that is based on objective evidence about the specific animal in question, such as the animal’s current conduct or a recent history of overt acts. The assessment will consider the nature, duration, and severity of the risk of injury; the probability that the potential injury will actually occur; and whether reasonable modifications of rules, policies, practices, procedures, or services will reduce the risk. In evaluating a recent history of overt acts, the Property shall take into account whether the assistance animal’s owner has taken any action that has reduced or eliminated the risk. (Ex: obtaining specific training, medication, or equipment for the animal) This direct threat provision of the Fair Housing Act requires the existence of a significant risk—not a remote or speculative risk. Accordingly, the determination will not be the result of fear or speculation about the types of harm or damage an animal may cause, or evidence about harm or damage caused by other animals.

The HUD Final Rule requires a person with a disability who uses an assistance animal to be responsible for the animal's care, maintenance, and control. This includes picking up and disposing of his or her assistance animal's waste.

Pet Deposit and Other Charges – A Pet Deposit in the amount of $200 will be charged. Pet Rent in the amount of $0.00 will be charged monthly for each pet.

Application Fee – A $16.50 non-refundable application fee is required for the first per person over the age of 18 years. A $25.50 non-refundable application fee is required for couples. An additional $11.00 is required for each additional person over the age of 18 years.

Security Deposits – A fully refundable security deposit is due upon execution of the lease agreement. The fully refundable security deposit will be no more than the equivalent of one month's rent. The following fully refundable security deposits will be charged – 1 Bdrm - $200; 2 Bdrm - $300; 3 Bdrm - $400.

Students – Certain restrictions apply to applicants whose household contains only full time students. Student status includes those attending public or private elementary schools, middle or junior high schools, senior high schools, colleges, universities, technical, trade or mechanical schools, but does not include those attending on-the-job training courses.

Exceptions to this policy include the following:

- At least one student receiving assistance under title IV of the Social Security Act (ex: payments under AFDC)
- At least one student was previously under the care and placement responsibility of the state agency responsible for administering foster care
- At least one student participates in a program receiving assistance under the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA), Workforce Investment Act or under other similar federal, state or local job training program
- At least one student is a single parent with child(ren) and this parent is not a dependent of another individual and the child(ren) is/are not dependent(s) of someone other than a parent
- Are the students married and entitled to file a joint tax return

Section 8 – All Section 8 Voucher holders are welcome to apply for residency and will be provided the same consideration as all other applicants.

Waiting List - When there are more applicants/residents than apartment vacancies at Peninsula management will establish and maintain an applicant wait list. The wait list order shall group applicants/residents by the unit size and date the application is received in the management office. When an apartment becomes available the first position applicant/resident on the wait list for that unit size will be contacted for possible residency. If management is unable to reach the applicant/resident within 24 hours, the applicant/resident will be removed from the wait list. The next position applicant/resident will then be contacted for the vacancy. The applicant/resident is responsible for keeping all contact information current. Any changes to the application such as address or contact information must be made in writing. The property will conduct outreach as necessary to ensure that the property has a sufficient number of applicants on the waiting list to fill anticipated vacancies and to assure that the property is affirmatively furthering fair housing and complying with the Fair Housing Act. Priority for accessible units shall be given to an applicant/resident that requires accessible features or an applicant/resident with a disabled household member that requires accessible features. The waitlist shall consist of no more than 30 applicants/residents at any time per unit size or with lower rent restricted units. Current residents on the waiting list will be given the same consideration as applicants on the waiting list unless an emergency or special needs request is necessary. For communities with mixed income units, applicants and current resident will be placed on the appropriate waitlist based on their income qualifications, unit size and date the application is received in the management office. The waitlist will be updated as needed to ensure that all applicants/residents and applicant/resident information is current and timely. To update the waiting list, the property will attempt to make contact via the phone number listed on the application to each applicant/resident on the waitlist to determine whether the applicant/resident continues to be interested in, and to qualify for, the program. The update request will provide a deadline of 48 hours by which the applicant/resident must respond and will state that failure to respond will result in the applicant's/ resident's name being removed from the waiting list. The property will close the waiting list if it has an adequate pool of applicants to fill projected vacancies. The number of applicants needed before closing the waitlist shall be set by the property and detailed in the property criteria. Recertification(s) – This development has elected not to do annual recertifications. Each existing household will be required to complete an Annual Eligibility Certification (AEC) keeping their move-in designation. A reasonable accommodation may be requested for applicants needing alternative methods of contact to update information.

Closing the Waitlist – Peninsula Park's waitlist will not close.

Recertification(s) – This development has elected not to do annual income recertifications. Each existing household will be required to complete an Annual Eligibility Certification (AEC) keeping their move-in designation.

VAWA PROTECTIONS - The Property is sensitive to the barriers of participation that accompanies applicants that are protected by the Violence Against Women Act. Please refer to the “Notice of Occupancy Rights” under the “Violence Against Women Act” documentation that will be provided to you upon execution of this Criteria.

The Property may request in writing that the victim, or a family member on the victim’s behalf, certify that the individual is a victim of abuse.

Denial of Application – If your application is denied for any reason, applicant will be provided a notification of denial, via in person, USPS, facsimile or email, which will include a phone number to the third party provider of information that resulted in the decision for denial within 7 days. This notice will include copies of HUD 5380, HUD 5381 and 5382. The applicant has fourteen (14) days to request an appeal in writing or request a meeting to discuss the rejection. If an appeal is requested due to the denial a second review of all documentation will be made by the compliance manager or someone who did not take part in the original decision. Notification will be by phone followed up in writing via e-mail or sent by USPS mail within 7 days. Should changes in circumstances arise from original application date, you may reapply after 90 days.

Grievance Procedure- If an applicant or resident disagrees with management policies, action or failure to act in accordance with the rental criteria or lease agreement the following procedures to mediate the resident disagreement with management will be:

- The applicant/resident will be given the opportunity to communicate their concerns to the community manager. If a resolution cannot be agreed upon,
- The applicant/resident may put their disagreement in writing to be reviewed by the property supervisor via:
 - *The property manager will forward to the supervisor
 - *Fax to the Corporate Office: Fax # (713)622-4762
 - *USPS to the Corporate office at Allied Orion Group, 2051 Greenhouse Road, Suite 300, Houston TX 77084
- An acknowledgement of receipt by Allied Orion Group will be sent to the applicant/resident within (15) days of receiving the written disagreement.
- The Property Supervisor will then review the written disagreement, research the situation and respond in writing with the decision within thirty (30) days of receiving the disagreement.
- ALL individual applicant/resident disagreements with management will be conducted privately in the on-site community manager’s office.

Unit Transfer Policy – This development has satisfied the election per the IRS form 8609 by completing the fifteen (15) year compliance period. Transfers within the same multiple building project are allowed, regardless of the household’s income at the most current certification. If transferring to same size unit, rent will remain the same if a rent increase has occurred in the last 12 months. Existing resident(s) must meet income/rent restrictions as outlined in criteria for rental. Residents who already reside in the development, or applicants on the waiting list, will be screened based on the original criteria that was in effect at the time the household originally applied at the development. Resident(s) electing to transfer must sign and date the Tenant Rights and Resource Guide Acknowledgement form and HUD 5380, 5381 and 5382 Acknowledgement form. Certification date follows the household, not the unit. A new application deposit will be required and converted to a security deposit once approved for the new unit and upon execution of the lease. Current unit deposit will be refunded if there are no damages to the current unit. Pre-inspection of the unit will be conducted prior to any transfer approval. If transfer is to accommodate a request for an accessible unit/reasonable accommodation, the security deposit will be waived. The Property does not offer a preference or give a priority to any applicant not residing on the Property over those already residing at the Property when the existing tenant is seeking a unit with a lower or higher income restriction than the unit they currently occupy. Existing tenants will be entered on the waitlist using the same process as applicants not currently residing at the Property. A preference shall be granted for a transfer by an existing tenant that needs an accessible unit/reasonable accommodation over applicants on the waiting list. A preference shall be granted for a transfer by an existing tenant that needs to transfer based on protections under the Violence against Woman Act over applicants on the waiting list. Priority for accessible units/reasonable accommodations shall be given to an applicant that requires accessible features or an applicant with a disabled household member that requires accessible features.

Emergency Transfer - If the dwelling unit is damaged or a condition inside the unit exist which is a hazard to life, health, or safety of the occupants, the property will move the resident to the first available unit, if available, where necessary repairs cannot be made within a reasonable time. If the occupant must be placed on the waitlist, they shall be placed at the top of the waitlist and occupy the next available unit.

Non-Renewals and Terminations of Lease Contracts for Existing Households – Existing households that are not allowed to renew and their lease is being terminated will be handled as allowed under the program. A specific reason for termination or non-renewal will be addressed in writing on the Advance Notice of Lease Termination form or renewal period for TDHCA regulated Affordable Housing Notification form. This property operates in compliance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) and will comply to non-renewals and termination of the lease contract accordingly. The HUD 5380 and 5382 forms will be given to each existing household along with the non-renewal/lease termination notice. If you are a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence or stalking, you as well as members of your family, may have protection from being denied housing or from losing housing as a consequence of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence or stalking. If you are a person with a disability, and if there is a reasonable accommodation that you would like to request in response to this notice, you have a right to do so under the Fair Housing Act. Person(s) with a disability and or reasonable accommodation, request will not be non-renewed or terminated from the lease contact solely based on a person(s) with a disability and or reasonable accommodation request. Appeal procedures will be included, but not limited to notification of a supervisor and/or compliance for appeal review, for these households. If an appeal is requested due to the outcome of non-renewal and termination of the lease contract for existing households a reconsideration process will take place. A reconsideration is a complete review of your claim by someone who did not take part in the first decision. Management will look at all the evidence submitted from the original decision, plus any new evidence.

Disability Qualifications - A special needs individual person is defined as having a physical or mental impairment, which substantially limits one or more major life activities (i.e. self-care, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning or working). If an accessible unit is not available for a qualified disabled applicant, the applicant shall not be denied housing. No disabled applicant shall be required to lease an accessible unit. No applicant is required to provide specific medical or disability information other than the disability verification that is requested to verify eligibility for reasonable accommodations.

NOTICE OF OCCUPANCY RIGHTS UNDER THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

Peninsula

Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act¹

To all Tenants and Applicants

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for persons that have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.² VAWA protections are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.³ The Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs is the State agency that oversees (please circle the covered program) the Housing Tax Credit, HOME Multifamily, HOME Tenant Based Rental Assistance, Tax Credit Assistance Program-Repayment Funds, National Housing Trust Fund, Emergency Solutions Grant, and the Housing Choice Voucher Program “covered program”. This notice explains your rights under VAWA. A U.S. Department of Housing (“HUD”) approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been subject to domestic violence; dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.

Protections for Applicants

If you otherwise qualify for assistance under the Housing Tax Credit Program, you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Tenants

If you are receiving assistance under the Housing Tax Credit Program, you may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been subject to of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under the Housing Tax Credit Program on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator from the Household

Peninsula may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If Peninsula chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, Peninsula may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the sole tenant to have established eligibility for assistance under the program, Peninsula must allow the tenant who is or has VAWA protections and other household members to remain in the unit for a period of time, in order to establish eligibility under the program or under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or, find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, Peninsula must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, Peninsula may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking (such as HUD’s self-certification form 5382).

² The VAWA statute uses the term victims to describe those with VAWA protections, but the Department herein refers to this class of persons as subject to protections under VAWA.

Moving to Another Unit

Upon your request, Peninsula may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, Peninsula may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, the housing provider may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

- (1) You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If Peninsula does not already have documentation that you have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.
- (2) You expressly request the emergency transfer. Peninsula may choose to require that you submit a form, or may accept another written or oral request.
- (3) You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You have been subject to sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you have been subject to sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

Peninsula will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and work to ensure the confidentiality of the location of any move by such victims and their families.

HP's emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and Peninsula must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

Documenting You Are or Have Been a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

Peninsula can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to "certify" that you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from Peninsula must be in writing, and Peninsula must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation. Peninsula may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request.

You can provide one of the following to Peninsula as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if Peninsula asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form (HUD form 5382) given to you by Peninsula with this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.
- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, "professional") from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.
- Any other statement or evidence that Peninsula has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, Peninsula does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

If Peninsula receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), Peninsula has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, Peninsula does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality

Peninsula must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

Peninsula must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of Peninsula (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

Peninsula must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. Peninsula, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to Peninsula to release the information on a time limited basis.
- Peninsula needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires Peninsula or your landlord to release the information.

VAWA does not limit Peninsula duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Tenant Eligible for Occupancy Rights under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated

You can be evicted and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, Peninsula cannot hold tenants who have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted and your assistance terminated, if Peninsula can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

- 1) Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
- 2) Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If Peninsula can demonstrate the above, Peninsula should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Other Laws

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for person's subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for persons subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.

Exp. 06/30/2017

Purpose of Form: The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Use of This Optional Form: If you are seeking VAWA protections from your housing provider, your housing provider may give you a written request that asks you to submit documentation about the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

In response to this request, you or someone on your behalf may complete this optional form and submit it to your housing provider, or you may submit one of the following types of third-party documentation:

The document must specify, under penalty of perjury, that the professional believes the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking occurred and meet the definition of “domestic violence,” “dating violence,” “sexual assault,” or “stalking” in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR 5.2003.
- (2) A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency; or
- (3) At the discretion of the housing provider, a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or tenant.

Submission of Documentation: The time period to submit documentation is 14 business days from the date that you receive a written request from your housing provider asking that you provide documentation of the occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Your housing provider may, but is not required to, extend the time period to submit the documentation, if you request an extension of the time period. If the requested information is not received within 14 business days of when you received the request for the documentation, or any extension of the date provided by your housing provider, your housing provider does not need to grant you any of the VAWA protections. Distribution or issuance of this form does not serve as a written request for certification.

Confidentiality: All information provided to your housing provider concerning the incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall be kept confidential and such details shall not be entered into any shared database. Employees of your housing provider are not to have access to these details unless to grant or deny VAWA protections to you, and such employees may not disclose this information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that disclosure is: (i) consented to by you in writing in a time-limited release; (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance; or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.

Model Emergency Transfer Plan for Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

Emergency Transfers

Peninsula is concerned about the safety of its tenants, and such concern extends to tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. In accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA),⁴ Peninsula allows tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to request an emergency transfer from the tenant's current unit to another unit. The ability to request a transfer is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.⁵ The ability of Peninsula to honor such request for tenants currently receiving assistance, however, may depend upon a preliminary determination that the tenant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and on whether Peninsula has another dwelling unit that is available and is safe to offer the tenant for temporary or more permanent occupancy.

This plan identifies tenants who are eligible for an emergency transfer, the documentation needed to request an emergency transfer, confidentiality protections, how an emergency transfer may occur, and guidance to tenants on safety and security. This plan is based on a model emergency transfer plan published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the Federal agency that oversees that Housing Tax Credit/Bond Program is in compliance with VAWA.

Eligibility for Emergency Transfers

A tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, as provided in HUD's regulations at 24 CFR part 5, subpart L is eligible for an emergency transfer, if: the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant remains within the same unit. If the tenant is a victim of sexual assault, the tenant may also be eligible to transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises within the 90-calendar-day period preceding a request for an emergency transfer.

A tenant requesting an emergency transfer must expressly request the transfer in accordance with the procedures described in this plan.

Tenants who are not in good standing may still request an emergency transfer if they meet the eligibility requirements in this section.

Emergency Transfer Request Documentation

To request an emergency transfer, the tenant shall notify Peninsula management office and submit a written request for a transfer to Peninsula located at 4855 West Fuqua; Houston, TX 77045. Peninsula will provide reasonable accommodations to this policy for individuals with disabilities. The tenant's written request for an emergency transfer should include either:

1. A statement expressing that the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant were to remain in the same dwelling unit assisted under Peninsula program; OR
2. A statement that the tenant was a sexual assault victim and that the sexual assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period preceding the tenant's request for an emergency transfer.

Confidentiality

⁵ Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.

Peninsula will keep confidential any information that the tenant submits in requesting an emergency transfer, and information about the emergency transfer, unless the tenant gives Peninsula written permission to release the information on a time limited basis, or disclosure of the information is required by law or required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance from the covered program. This includes keeping confidential the new location of the dwelling unit of the tenant, if one is provided, from the person(s) that committed an act(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against the tenant. See the Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act For All Tenants for more information about Peninsula responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of information related to incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Emergency Transfer Timing and Availability

Peninsula cannot guarantee that a transfer request will be approved or how long it will take to process a transfer request. Peninsula will, however, act as quickly as possible to move a tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to another unit, subject to availability and safety of a unit. If a tenant reasonably believes a proposed transfer would not be safe, the tenant may request a transfer to a different unit. If a unit is available, the transferred tenant must agree to abide by the terms and conditions that govern occupancy in the unit to which the tenant has been transferred. Peninsula may be unable to transfer a tenant to a particular unit if the tenant has not or cannot establish eligibility for that unit.

If Peninsula has no safe and available units for which a tenant who needs an emergency is eligible, Peninsula will assist the tenant in identifying other housing providers who may have safe and available units to which the tenant could move. At the tenant's request, Peninsula will also assist tenants in contacting the local organizations offering assistance to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that are attached to this plan.

Safety and Security of Tenants

Pending processing of the transfer and the actual transfer, if it is approved and occurs, the tenant is urged to take all reasonable precautions to be safe.

Tenants who are or have been victims of domestic violence are encouraged to contact the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233, or a local domestic violence shelter, for assistance in creating a safety plan. For persons with hearing impairments, that hotline can be accessed by calling 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).

Tenants who have been victims of sexual assault may call the Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network's National Sexual Assault Hotline at 800-656-HOPE, or visit the online hotline at <https://ohl.rainn.org/online/>.

Tenants who are or have been victims of stalking seeking help may visit the National Center for Victims of Crime's Stalking Resource Center at <https://www.victimsofcrime.org/our-programs/stalking-resource-center>.

Attachment: Local organizations offering assistance to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
